Russell & Cathryn Baldner

UNI Alumni Russell Baldner (B.A., M.A. History/German) and Cathryn Elmer Baldner (M.A. Communications) are career educators in their respective fields who have traveled extensively in Europe, including eight sojourns in Germany. ## SEPTEMBER 2022

Day by Day Itinerary

B=breakfast L=lunch D=dinner

Thursday, September 8 Depart the U.S.

The day of departure has arrived! We'll meet at the Minneapolis-St. Paul International Airport to check in for our flights to Germany (other departure cities available upon request). Our adventure is beginning! (D-in flight)

Friday, September 9 Arrive Frankfurt

Guten Tag, and welcome to Germany! We'll touch down at the Frankfurt International Airport, meet our tour manager and board the waiting motorcoach. We'll stretch our legs by walking through Frankfurt's lovely historic Römerberg and stop to see the decorative Kaisersaal (Emperor Hall), before enjoying a welcome dinner and an overnight stay in or near Frankfurt. (B-in flight, D)

Saturday, September 10 Frankfurt > Eisenach

After a good night's sleep and breakfast, we will head to Eisenach, located on the northwestern edge of the Thuringian Forest. Our walking tour of the Old Town includes a visit to the Lutherhaus Museum. Located in one of the oldest surviving half-timbered houses in Thuringia, it was extensively renovated prior to the Reformation anniversary year in 2017. Luther spent his formative school years in Eisenach and lived with the owners of this house at the time. We'll also visit St. George's Church, where Bach was baptized and Luther preached in 1521, even though he was then officially banned from the Holy Roman Empire. Relax over dinner at the hotel this evening and enjoy an evening talk by Russell. (B, D)

Sunday, September 11 Eisenach

We'll visit the Bach House this morning, where we'll find manuscripts, scores, and portraits recalling not only Johann Sebastian Bach, but also several other family members—all of them composers. We'll have some free time for an independent lunch and the impressive Wartburg Castle awaits us this afternoon. Perched on a rocky spur above town, it was here that Luther worked on his translation of the New Testament from the original Greek text to German. We'll see the Knight's Hall, the dining room, the Wartburg Museum, and Luther's room. The evening will be free for an independent dinner. (B)

Monday, September 12 Eisenach > Eisleben > Quedlinburg

Today we'll travel to Eisleben, the small mining town where Luther was born and where he died while visiting to help settle a dispute between the Counts of Mansfeld. We'll visit an interesting museum at the site of Luther's birth house that has information about his origins, childhood, and youth. We'll also visit the St. Peter and St. Paul Church, where Luther was baptized on November 11, 1483, the day after his birth. Today's lunch will be at a restaurant and our destination is the picturesque UNESCO World Heritage City of Quedlinburg. A walking tour will provide orientation of the city and we'll visit the Fachwerkmuseum im Ständerbau, a museum about the history of timber-framed buildings from the 14th to the 19th centuries. Its location is the oldest preserved half-timbered house in Quedlinburg! We'll then check in to our hotel for a two-night stay and have dinner, followed by an evening talk. (B, L, D)

Tuesday, September 13
Quedlinburg >
Wernigerode > Goslar
> Quedlinburg

This morning, we'll take a guided tour of the Stiftskirche St. Servatii that includes the church, Domschatz (cathedral treasury), crypt and grave of Henry I, a founding and renowned monarch of the medieval German kingdom. If time allows, we'll also visit the Schloss Museum. Our day includes an excursion to the nearby town of Wernigerode, where we'll see views of the remarkable Rathaus (Town Hall) and Wernigerode Castle. Then we will continue to Goslar for a guided tour of the historic Kaiserpfalz (Imperial Palace) that, together with Goslar's Old Town and the Rammelsberg, is a UNESCO World Heritage Site. Upon return to Quedlinburg, we'll have some free time before dinner at the hotel. (B, D)

Wednesday, September 14
Quedlinburg >
Halberstadt >
Wittenberg

We'll visit the Cathedral and Treasury in Halberstadt today. With around 300 items on display, it has one of the most extensive and important cathedral treasuries in Germany. If time allows, we'll make a stop in the city Magdeburg, whose conversion to Protestantism was one of Luther's greatest victories. We'll end the day in Lutherstadt-Wittenberg, the "cradle" of the Reformation. Here we'll check in at our hotel for a two-night stay, dinner, and an interesting after-dinner talk. (B, D)

Thursday, September 15
Wittenberg

A guided walking tour of Wittenberg will introduce us to its important Reformation sites. We'll visit the Luther House, formerly a monastery and later Luther's home that has some of the original rooms on display. We'll also see St. Mary's City Church, where Luther preached, as well as the Schlosskirche (Castle Church). It was to the door of this church that Luther affixed his 95 Theses in 1517, and it contains the graves of Luther and Philipp Melancthon, a close friend to Luther and fellow reformer. We also plan to visit the historic Melancthon House to learn more about his life and works and have some free time to explore Wittenberg. (B)

Friday, September 16
Wittenberg > Dresden

We'll visit the Cranach Courtyard and Workshop this morning. Lucas Cranach the Elder is known as the "Reformation painter" since his portraits of Martin Luther and his wife helped spread the Reformation. Our travels will then take us to Dresden, located in the heart of Saxony on the banks of the Elbe River. The city was almost destroyed completely during heavy air raids in World War II, just a few months before the end of the war, but it has been amazingly restored to its former splendor. We'll see evidence of this restoration during a guided walking tour, as we visit the magnificently reconstructed Frauenkirche, and enjoy a walk past the Fürstenzug (Procession of Princes), a mural of the Saxon ruling dynasty. The day concludes with dinner at the hotel. (B, D)

Saturday, September 17
Dresden

Our morning begins with a guided walking tour of the newly renovated wing of the Zwinger Museum to see the impressive Old Masters Picture Gallery and Sculpture Collection. We'll then have free time to continue exploring other parts of the museum or to do as we please in Dresden. Some free time options for today and tomorrow include visiting the Grünes Gewölbe (Green Vault) to see its extensive treasure collection and climbing the observation deck at the top of the Frauenkirche. Choose from one of Dresden's restaurants for an independent dinner. (B)

Sunday, September 18
Dresden > Berlin

The morning will be free to attend a worship service or explore Dresden on our own. We'll then head to Berlin, Germany's cosmopolitan capital, where an orientation tour by bus includes views of such famous sites as the majestic Reichstag, the Brandenburg Gate, Kaiser-Wilhelm Memorial Church, and the Kurfürstendamm—an area filled with cafés, restaurants, theaters, and fashionable shops. We'll then check in at our hotel for a three-night stay and dinner. (B, D)

Monday, September 19
Berlin

Today we'll see the moving Berlin Wall Memorial at Bernauerstrasse, as well as the Holocaust Memorial and the Neue Wache (Place of Remembrance), which is a national memorial to victims of war and tyranny. This afternoon, we plan to tour the historic Reichstag, Germany's parliament building, with its striking glass dome. The evening will be free to explore Berlin and have an independent dinner. (B)

Tuesday, September 20
Berlin

We'll enjoy a cruise on Spree River today to see many of Berlin's famous landmarks from a different vantage. The rest of the day will be at leisure to explore Museum Island—where many of Berlin's top museums and the impressive Berlin Cathedral are located—as well as the Nikolaiviertel (Nicholas Quarter), the oldest part of Berlin. You may also want to ascend the Berliner Fernsehturm (TV Tower) for a spectacular view of the city from above. We'll cap off our Berlin experience by reconvening for a festive farewell dinner at a restaurant. (B, D)

- 2 Wittenberg

Wednesday, September 21

General Data Protection Policy. We collect personal data, including, but not limited to legal name, gender, date of birth, passport information, dietary needs, and mobility concerns for the purpose of making travel arrangements on your behalf. We share this information with suppliers as it relates to the operation of your trip/tour. By signing the registration form/agreeing to the terms in TRIP, you agree to sharing your personal data for the purpose of making travel agreements on your behalf.

The cost of your tour includes:

Air transportation from Minneapolis-St. Paul to Frankfurt and from Berlin to Minneapolis-St. Paul with any regularly scheduled air carrier, based on a nonrefundable/nonchangeable fare, which requires a minimum of 10 passengers traveling round trip together. The identity of the carrier, which may include the carrier's code-share partner, will be assigned and disclosed in your final documents. Tickets are issued 45 days prior to departure. All current airlines taxes, security fees and fuel surcharges are included. Note that these items cannot be guaranteed until tickets are issued.

Secure flight information. The requirement to collect date of birth, gender, and full name are federally mandated by the Transportation Security Administration's (TSA) Secure Flight Program. While disclosure of this information is voluntary, if it is not provided, participants may be denied boarding. TSA's privacy policy, as well as additional details, can be found at tsa.gov using the keywords Secure Flight. Witte takes all reasonable steps to safeguard the privacy of all information collected from its clients.

Frequent flyer points are not guaranteed in connection with group airfares. Some airlines may limit group airfare credits to 25% to 50% of the frequent flyer points that apply to individuals while others do not offer any credits for group airfares.

Hazardous Materials. Federal law forbids the carriage of hazardous materials aboard aircraft in your luggage or on your person. A violation can result in five years' imprisonment and penalties of $250,000 or more (49 U.S.C. 5124). Hazardous materials include explosives, compressed gases, flammable liquids and solids, oxidizers, poisons, corrosives and radioactive materials. For more information, examples and special exceptions, visit: <http://www.tsa.gov/traveler-information/prohibited-items>.

Land transportation. A deluxe air-conditioned motorcoach is used for transfers, excursions, and travel between cities. Because motorcoach travel is restricted in many European cities, sightseeing is often done on foot or via public transportation.

Accommodations in moderate first-class to standard first-class hotels based on two people sharing a room with private facilities. When hotels in these categories are not available, top-quality superior tourist-class properties are selected. The supplement for single accommodations is $810. If you register alone but want a roommate, we will do our best to assign one. If a single room must be assigned to any member of the group for any reason, even if it is at the last minute or while on tour, we will need to charge the single supplement. Changes in rooming arrangements requested by the participant 45 or fewer days prior to departure may result in additional charges.

Meals. Breakfast daily, one lunch, and dinners as indicated in the itinerary. Dinners do not include beverages.

Tour Personnel. A multi-lingual tour manager to accompany the group from arrival in Frankfurt until departure from Berlin. The tour manager will be assisted by local guides as needed.

Sightseeing and admission fees in accordance with the itinerary.

Tip and taxes are included for all services, including the tip for the tour manager and motorcoach driver.

The tour cost does not include passports, airline luggage fees if charged, portage of luggage, optional travel protection plan including luggage and trip cancellation coverage, optional excursions, independent meals, and any other items not mentioned as included.

Insecticide Disclosure. Some countries require that aircraft be treated with insecticides prior to flight or while occupied. For a list of the countries with insecticide requirements, go to <http://airconsumer.dot.gov/spray.htm>.

Optional travel protection. Witte recommends that you purchase a travel protection plan. For your convenience, Witte Travel offers a travel protection plan designed by Travelers Insurance Services. This travel protection can be purchased at any time prior to making the final payment for your tour. To be eligible for the waiver of pre-existing medical exclusion, the protection plan must be purchased within 15 days from the time you make your initial trip deposit, provided you are medically fit to travel at the time of purchase and full trip cost is insured. The pre-existing medical exclusion applies to you, or your traveling companion, business partner and traveling or non-traveling family member. For all traveling companions to benefit from the pre-existing condition waiver, each must enroll in travel protection within 15 days of initial deposit and meet qualifications for the pre-existing condition waiver. The plan cost for the travel protection plan that applies to your tour will be noted in your brochure and on the registration form. It may be necessary to increase the trip cost insured on the travel protection plan if you purchase additional services and/or upgrade any arrangements. Documentation: Passports, Visas, and Travel Consent for Minors. All U.S. citizens are required to have a valid passport book to travel internationally. If you already have a passport book, check its expiration date now since the country visited on this tour requires passports to be valid for at least six months beyond the traveler's intended return date. If your passport is due to expire earlier, you will need to obtain a new one. If you do not have a passport book or need a new one, apply as soon as possible. If you plan to visit other countries on your own, contact Witte for any special requirements. All non-U.S. citizens should contact Witte for their special requirements. We will check the requirements for non-U.S. citizens at the time they register and again approximately 45 days prior to departure. Witte is not responsible for any changes in requirements for non-U.S. citizens that occur after our final check.

When travelling domestically or internationally, the U.S. Transportation Security Administration (TSA) and U.S. Department of Homeland Security (DHS) advise that everyone carry at least two forms of acceptable identification in order to board a flight found <http://www.tsa.gov/traveler-information/acceptable-ids>. Examples: DHS-designated enhanced driver's license, U.S. Passport, a foreign government passport. The name, date of birth and gender that appears on the identification card must exactly match the same data listed on airline ticket(s) and booking records

Minor children traveling internationally without both parents are strongly encouraged to carry a notarized note signed by both parents stating that they have permission to travel without one or both of them. It has become increasingly necessary to possess such a note, and will save time if questions arise departing from the U.S. or to exit a foreign country. In order to download a sample minor consent form go to: <https://www.us-passport-service-guide.com/minor-travel-consent-form.html>The sample form is a guide only. Parents who share custody of their children should carry copies of the legal custody documents. Important note: Parents are responsible to contact the embassy of the country or countries the minor child will be visiting to confirm all travel entry and exit requirements, which may include obtaining additional notarized documentation.

HEALTH DOCUMENTATION REQUIREMENTS. You are responsible to make absolutely certain to have the proper immunizations and required documentation of such immunizations before travel. Witte shall not assume responsibility for the accuracy of health requirements or vaccination documentation prior to departure or upon landing at the final destination. See your health practitioner for advice. Prior to travel, required inoculations, if any, must be recorded by your health practitioner on a valid vaccination certificate, and you must carry for proof of inoculation where required. If you are concerned about taking any medications or receiving certain inoculations, and adequate timing of such inoculations relative to your travel booking, consult your health practitioner BEFORE booking. Check the U.S. State Department websites <http://travel.state.gov> for relevant information relating to travel to specific destinations, the USA Centers for Disease Control <http://wwwnc.cdc.gov/travel/destinations/list/> and the World Health Organization <http://www.who.int/en/> relating to health issues.

You may also carry a purse, a camera and one piece of hand luggage with a maximum size of 45 linear inches and weight of 15 lbs. These size and weight restrictions conform to most airlines' requirements. Hand luggage does not fit in the overhead bins on the motorcoach. There may be room for it in the storage compartment under the coach or by an empty seat on board. If not, it will need to be placed on the floor in front of your feet.

Tour cost. The tour cost is based on a group of 27 passengers and current tariffs for air and land arrangements.

Please note that these travel arrangements are subject to possible price increases due to additional charges imposed by a supplier or government. You may be charged additional sums by Witte to offset increased fees, fuel surcharges, taxes, fluctuations in foreign exchange markets, and/or changes in group size. Before passing on an increase, Witte will use its best efforts to minimize the amount. If it is necessary to increase the tour cost, participants will be advised at final billing and provided with a summary of the contributing factors. Your signature on the registration form indicates consent to any post-purchase price increases.
