Tokyo is an ultra-modern city built on deeply traditional roots. This bustling capital invites you to explore its diversity—from the quiet history of the temples, shrines, and the Imperial Palace to the pulse of downtown life that ebbs and flows in the shadows of the towering skyscrapers. Considered one of the best food cities on the planet, Tokyo has 230 Michelin-starred restaurants. Like the city itself, these restaurants call on the traditions and culture of Japan while serving up dishes with a contemporary flair.

Apr 10 Arrive at Haneda Airport and transfer* to the four-star Keio Plaza Hotel or similar accommodations. Spend the remainder of the day at leisure.

Apr 11 This morning, set out on a full-day sightseeing tour of Tokyo. Explore the main observatory of Tokyo Tower, the second tallest structure in Japan. Look out over Ginza, Tokyo Bay, and Mount Fuji. Take a cruise down the Sumida River, a waterway famously written about by the Japanese poet Matsuo Basho. Take in views of the modern skyline of the city while glimpsing the scenes of Tokyo's past. Travel to Asakusa Senso-ji, the oldest temple in Tokyo, dedicated to the Buddhist bodhisattva Kannon, the goddess of mercy. Spend time shopping before taking a panoramic sightseeing tour of the Imperial Palace, the primary residence of the Emperor of Japan. Return to the hotel and spend the remainder of the evening at leisure.

Apr 12 After breakfast, embark on a half-day tour. Travel by motor coach to the Tsukiji Outer Market, where you can purchase fresh foods, Japanese spices, or kitchenware. Next, take a panoramic tour of Ginza, the "Champs-Élysées of Tokyo." Ginza is Tokyo's most famous upscale shopping market. Pop into a small boutique, art gallery, or department store. Transfer to Nautica in the afternoon.

Note: This tour involves a moderate amount of walking, some over uneven or uphill terrain, and may not be suitable for those with walking difficulties.
